

SalemNews.com, Salem, MA

November 26, 2011

CAL/NEC Tier 2 All-Stars announced

—

Marblehead and Swampscott dominated the awards as the Cape Ann League/Northeastern Conference Tier 2 football all-stars were announced yesterday.

Swampscott's Steve Dembowski and Marblehead's Jim Rudloff were named Co-Coaches of the Year, while Swampscott quarterback/defensive back Mike Walsh took home the Most Valuable Player award. Marblehead running back Will Quigley was named Offensive Player of the Year, and linebackers Oliver Gregory of Marblehead and Mark Giles of Beverly earned Co-Defensive Players of the Year recognition.

On offense, Beverly's Brendan Flaherty (RB) and Kenny Pierce (RB) were selected, along with Swampscott's A.J. Baker (WR), Richard Sullivan (WR), Sam Gold (OL) and Mark Lausier (OL). Danvers placed Nick Valles (RB), Michael Connors (OL) and Joe Manson (OL) on the offensive team, while Marblehead also had Colton Dana (TE).

Gloucester's Kyle Lucido (RB), Matt Taormina (TE) and Devan Hemian (OL) rounded out the offense.

Marblehead had Tyler Bates (LB), Joel Katz (LB), John Perry (LB), and Jeff Peras (DL) on defense, while Swampscott placed Nick Meninno (DB), Zach Kalapinski (LB), Aidan Lang (LB), and Joe DeSalvo (DL) on that side of the ball.

Beverly's Dom Abate (DB), Nick Theriault (DB), Nick Quartarone (LB), and Michael Dooling (DL) were also named defensive all-stars, as was Salem's Christian Dunston (DB) and Nick Paine (LB).

Swampscott's Robert Dobias was named the Assistant Coach of the Year.